LOK SABHA
ELECTION'S IN 2019

The Prime Minister leads the executive of the Government of India.

The Lok Sabha is composed of representatives of people chosen by direct election on the basis of Universal Adult Suffrage.

One of the most important function of the Lok Sabha is to select the executive.

The Lok Sabha is more powerful than the Rajya Sabha because it has larger membership than the Rajya Sabha.

The Lok Sabha, constitutionally the House of the people, is the lower house of India's Bicameral parliament, with the upper house begin the Rajya Sabha.

The Constitution of India of 550 members in the House, with 530 members representing the States and 20 representing the Union Territories.

No confidence motion can only be introduced and passed in the Lok Sabha.

So it controls the despotism of the government. Money bills can be only introduced in the Lok Sabha.

Initial return showed the BJP leading in all 303 constituencies it eventually won, and opposition leader Rahul Gandhi conceded defeat prior to the official.

It helps in proper functioning of democracy through the system of checks and balances.

The house meets in the Lok Sabha Chambers of the Parliament House, New Delhi.

The Counting of votes was held on 23 May 2019, and was completed early the following day.
